
Contents

Cover Page		i-ii
Contributors		iii
Acknowledgements		iv
Foreword
1	Introduction Andrew McCarthy	1
2	Underwater archaeological feasibility report for the pre-Neolithic Aspros site, Western Cyprus Jonathan Benjamin	4
3	Archaeological applications for remote sensing in the coastal waters of Cyprus: the experience of recent fieldwork and methodology for the future Justin Leidwanger and Duncan Howitt-Masball	15
4	Preliminary botanical results from Kritou Marottou-'Ais Yiorkis Leilani Espinda Lucas	34
5	Do pillars travel along with the obsidian? ... or is it vice-versa? Vasiliki Koutrafouris	38
6	Looking for immigrants at Kissonerga-Mosphilia in the Late Chalcolithic Dental non-metric perspective of Chalcolithic and Early Bronze Age Southwest Cyprus Zisis Parras	63
7	The Multifarious Past: Illustrating and Understanding Prehistoric Architecture in Crete And Cyprus Giorgos Vavouranakis	75
8	Manufacturing identity: an isochrestic approach to the ceramics from Kissonerga-Ammoudhia Lisa Graham	100
9	Investigating the faunal record from Bronze Age Cyprus: diversification and intensification Matthew Spigelman	119

10	There is something Cypriot in the air. Some thoughts on the problem of the Base Ring pottery and other Cyprus-related items from (local) Middle Bronze Age contexts in Sicily Gianmarco Alberti	130
11	The Cypriot connection: aspects of Cretan contacts with Cyprus during the MB-LBI periods Annette Højen Sørensen	154
12	What can pottery tell us about a Late Bronze community? An examination of the pottery from the LC IIC - LC IIIA settlement at Alassa-Pano Mandilaris. Ariane Jacobs	184
13	Island alliances: the workshops of Ugarit and the Cypriot 'Common-style' seals Andrew McCarthy	195
14	Aphrodite, Hephaistos and Ares: some thoughts on the origins of the mythical connection of the three gods in the metallurgy of Late Bronze Age Cyprus Anna Kieburg	210
15	The dead lover. Adonis in cult and architecture. From the Levant to Cyprus and Rome Wiebke Friese	232